

EXPERIENCE THE SPORT OF KINGS

SANTA ANITA PARK

Santa Anita Park is an iconic destination set at the foothills of the San Gabriel Mountains, just minutes from downtown Los Angeles. For more than 80 years, this historic Southern California fixture has set the stage for the most dramatic moments in Thoroughbred racing, where legendary racehorses like Seabiscuit, John Henry, Zenyatta, and American Pharoah crossed the finish line into infamy. From Hollywood's Golden Age to today, the park has remained a playground for the Silver Screen's brightest stars. Now, Santa Anita beckons a new breed of fans to experience the style, sophistication and excitement of this unforgettable California institution. Hot off a recent $40 million renovation, the park features new private luxury suites and refreshed spaces with a revitalized art deco design. With its spectacular setting, storied heritage and new modern enhancements, Santa Anita Park is the premier venue for spectacular events, private celebrations, and the Sport of Kings.

THE SUITES AT SANTA ANITA

The Suites at Santa Anita Park are the ultimate venue to enjoy an afternoon of thoroughbred horse racing at one of the world's most beautiful racetracks. With heart-pounding finish line views set against the backdrop of the majestic San Gabriel Mountains, the suites offer the perfect setting to entertain clients, reward employees or spend time with friends and family in exclusive style. Accommodating groups of 10 to 40 guests, the suites boast private entrances and wagering, luxurious indoor and outdoor seating, Club House access, Wi-Fi and panoramic views of Santa Anita's famed homestretch.

SERVICE & AMENITIES

Guests enjoy unparalleled VIP services and amenities, including valet parking, betting concierge, culinary butlers, personal paddock tours, live tellers on suite concourse, a named race in the program and access to watch from the Winner's Circle. When it comes to experiencing the luxury of American thoroughbred racing, nothing compares to Santa Anita Park.

THE CHANDELIER ROOM

The Chandelier Room is one of Santa Anita Park's most glamorous spaces. Royalty, Hollywood's elite and top racing enthusiasts have gathered in this timeless space for decades. A recent multimillion dollar renovation revived this iconic room to its original luster, along with new modernized amenities.

MODERN MEETS SOCIAL

The Balcony

Today, the Chandelier Room remains the top gathering place at Santa Anita Park, with craft cocktails, live music and a rotation of acclaimed guest chefs. Enjoy the races from the Chandelier Room's private balcony, accessible by two elegant spiral staircases winding around the room's original 1930's chandelier. Here, you can experience Los Angeles' innovative dining culture paired with the timeless tradition of Thoroughbred horse racing in a grand setting. Elegantly displayed HD TV's ensure guests won't miss a minute of the racing action as they mix, mingle and meet new friends. Great for private business events and social gatherings year-round, the Chandelier Room boasts opulent art deco decor, high ceilings and a luxurious private entrance and elevator.

WINNER'S TERRACE

The only thing more thrilling than watching a live Thoroughbred race at Santa Anita Park is watching it from the finish line. Guests of the Winner's Terrace have exclusive access to the most exhilarating experience at the track, with unprecedented views of the finish line and the Winner's Circle. Placed beneath a shaded canopy, the Winner's Terrace includes catering, a private betting machine, and a truly unique and exciting way to enjoy race day in unparalleled comfort.

THE 100-to-1 CLUB

Step up to The 100 to 1 Club, the newest Club House destination that combines the timeless grace of The Great Race Place with the energy of a sports bar. Perched above Santa Anita's first turn, The 100 to 1 Club puts you on top of the action as the horses race right below your feet. Available to groups of 50 to 150, The 100 to 1 Club offers a full bar, private wagering, live tellers and restaurants, action chef stations and a number of HD flat screen televisions.

TURF TERRACE

Turf Terrace is Santa Anita Park's veritable "best seat in the house." Combining the formal with the familiar, Turf Terrace is located just past the finish line, allowing patrons to experience the open-air excitement of Thoroughbred racing while enjoying an exceptional formal dining experience. Ensnconced across three shaded levels within Santa Anita's impressive art deco grandstand, the Turf Terrace features a seasonal menu showcasing California's diverse range of local cuisine, along with individual table-top monitors providing discrete access to wagering.

CLUB HOUSE MEZZANINE

At the center of Santa Anita Park's recent renovations is the Club House Mezzanine. Affectionately known as "Club Mezz," this foodie paradise is set at the heart of Santa Anita Park and now features a wide selection of eclectic dining options. From the tried-and-true classic carved sandwiches at Grade One, to contemporary options such as sushi and noodle bars, Club Mezz is the pinnacle of sporting event dining. Sip a rotating selection of craft beer and wine at Farriers, located within the Mezzanine. Nearby, early risers can discover fantastic espresso, breakfast and bakery options at Clockers' Café, an extension of Santa Anita's storied breakfast nook, Clockers' Corner.

BOX SEATS

Relax in pure comfort in your own personal box seat. These exclusive accommodations have been recently renovated to include seating from four to six and fitted with personal television monitors-broadcasting both onsite and offsite live racing as well as live sporting events-the Club House experience is best complemented by these premium seats. Box seating upgrades are available to all Club House patrons.

FRONTRUNNER

Perched above the track with a resplendent panorama of the San Gabriel Mountains as the backdrop, FrontRunner places guests on top of the world. Radiating casual elegance since opening in 1999, FrontRunner puts a relaxing spin on a day at the races. Here, guests can quietly appreciate the beauty and sophistication of Santa Anita Park. The restaurant's infamous 215-foot long bar is a showstopper on race days, while the fresh Mediterranean California cuisine keeps guests coming back long after the season has ended.

THE INFIELD

The multi-acre Infield at Santa Anita Park offers a fun, safe and family friendly environment with pristine scenery, exceptional service and is surrounded by the excitement of Thoroughbred racing. Offering spacious picnic areas, some semi-covered, the Infield provides an ideal space to create events of all types – from carnivals and picnics, to elegant seated dinners with reception areas from groups of 20 up to 10,000.
